MEMORANDUM FOR: [redacted]
National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics

SUBJECT : Travel of NACA Personnel in Behalf of Project AQUATONE

1. During the past several months I have noticed a considerable amount of travel being performed by NACA personnel which has either directly or indirectly benefitted our activities. There has also been some apparent confusion as to which of our respective offices would absorb the cost of such travel and subsequently what portions of travel.

2. In an effort to clarify this latter point to a degree of mutual understanding, the following is proposed for your concurrence:

a. The cost of all travel which is requested by Project AQUATONE will be absorbed by the Project including per diem.

b. On occasions where travel is of mutual benefit to both AQUATONE and NACA, AQUATONE will absorb expenses in excess of that which would have normally been expended in the pursuit of NACA business. Per Diem will be considered a Project expense at such times as the trip is lengthened to better serve our interests.

3. With regards to Paragraph 2b above, I have in mind your recent trip to Brussels, Belgium for NACA, with continued travel to areas of our interest. The cost of the transportation from
